

Comments from recent Treaty Workshops:

Brilliant ... did not think it would generate any passion or interest in me - it did both

Excellent facilitation - gentle approach allowing for discussion – people to learn

Balanced view of the Treaty, understanding the context & importance of history on events now. We do not exist in a vacuum without being influenced by our history/past

The best Treaty workshop I have done – very worthwhile – non-threatening. Enlarged my understanding of the context of our history

Fantastic – go listen, question, learn

Totally valuable, inspiring, sad, proud to be living in NZ and to be a future citizen

Absolutely brilliant ...an interactive, informative and fun 2 days

Excellent opportunity to reflect on both my own personal history and attitudes ... to be more aware of... issues around Treaty of Waitangi

Knowledgeable & patient facilitator... highly recommend the workshop

Great workshop – have come away confident that I understand the history of NZ more

Breath of fresh air...challenged people... changed my thinking. Robert is a pakeha pioneer!

PURPOSE

This workshop provides an environment in which people can explore the Treaty of Waitangi and its' implications in a safe, non-confrontational, participatory process. A framework is provided to enable participants to understand the contemporary debate. Although primarily for pakeha, the workshops are open to all who wish to attend.

PROGRAMME

A broad range of issues will be examined, including those which participants raise.

- ◆ Cultural identity; honouring our stories
- ◆ Global Colonisation
- ◆ Origins of New Zealand settlement; Pre Treaty New Zealand history;
- ◆ The Treaty - issues leading to it and surrounding its signing
- ◆ Post Treaty legislation,
- ◆ Consequences of colonisation
- ◆ Sovereignty debate
- ◆ Waitangi Tribunal and settlements
- ◆ Contemporary Treaty issues and implications for the future

WORKSHOP LEADER

Robert Consedine has had over twenty years experience as a Treaty educator, working in more than 150 different organisations. He enjoys wide community and organisational support. As a best selling author he has also introduced this workshop process to groups in Canada.
